✓ TRANSPARENCY

"My experience with 'My Tennessee Home Solutions' was everything you could want. I've been on the market with selling my parents home. And of course was hesitant & to be honest was gun-shy to talking with just another realtor. Spenser Copp & his team were unbelievably transparent with expectations from his end to being open to my needs. I cannot say enough about the people in this organization... 'Caring, Understanding & Transparency' are the words that come to mind when thinking about this group."

- Caleb Slaughter (Homeowner that decided to sell to us)

✓ PROFESSIONALISM

"These were great people to work with. Very professional, courteous, responsive, and honest. They do what they say they are going to do. No last minute changes. No bait and switch. After I agreed on price Bailey was my primary contact. I can't say enough good things about her and the way she handled all of the details. She was great to deal with and bent over backwards to answer any questions. If your situation dictates that you need to sell your house fast, then I definitely recommend these good people at My Tennessee Home Solutions!"

HOMEOWNERS BEWARE OF SCAMS

Homeowners looking to sell properties are facing scams more than ever. Fortune Magazine shows that 73% of real estate firms reported increased schemes during 2023. How do these scam artists find their targets? They use public records to find mortgage and lien-free properties, property owner information, and rental listings. The most common scams are cash buyers, moving scams, fake real estate professionals, home remodeling, and improvement schemes.

IDENTIFYING SCAMS

QUESTIONS TO ASK

- 01 Do you have a website where I can see your work?
- 02 Can you show me proof of funds or a letter from your bank?
- 03 Are you registered with Better Business Bureau?

RED FLAGS TO LOOK FOR

- 01 No Online Footprint
Professionals will have a website, social media, and reviews. If none are present, it is most likely a scam.
- 02 Lack of Transparency
If they can't verify funds, ask you for money, stating homeowner needs to pay for repairs to sell or offer substantially below market value, it is most likely a scam. Or they are asking you to sign contracts before explaining process.
- 03 Lack of Professionalism
Whether it is an agent or investor, everyone will be licensed or have a registered business. Google Reviews are a great place to verify their reputation.

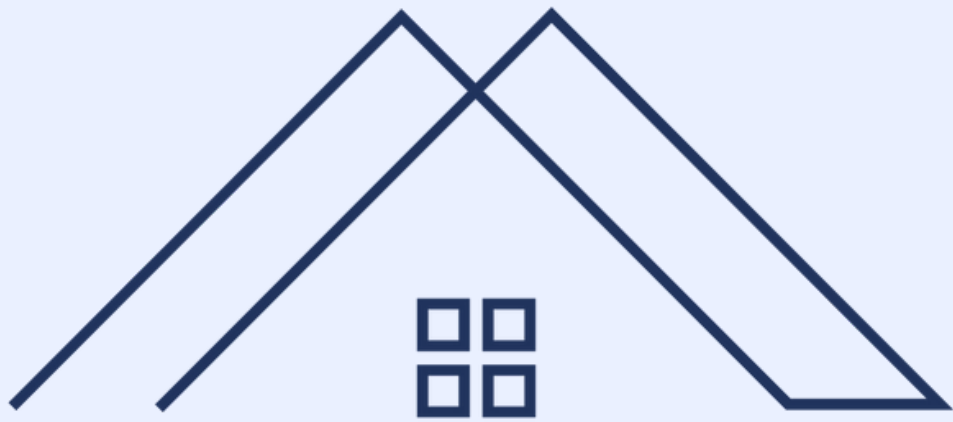

DON'T JUST TAKE OUR WORD FOR IT!

People love working with us because we've been doing this for a while. We have the knowledge and cash to back it up and can be flexible in structuring offers because sometimes it is more challenging than just a price. It often depends on whether you need cash upfront, or you need to stay in the house a bit after closing, or whether there are any unique stipulations. We've dealt with it all, and people love that about us. Here is why people work with us:

- 1- We're local and Veterans who know the area because we're from the area.
- 2- We empower our clients by providing flexible offers and multiple options with certainty to close on your schedule.
- 3- We're able to help after you sell to us with moving assistance or even rent backs during the relocation process.
- 4- We give back through quarterly donations with non-profits and maybe you (the seller) have something in particular you would like us to donate towards.
